The member of the service can also postpone or cancel the meeting, but it should be noted that it must stay at least a day (24 hours) before the day and time of the meeting. The service fee will not be refunded if the participant does not fulfill this condition.

The payment for this service is not refundable if the participant does not come to the meeting at the agreed time

Each first meeting with the lady has a maximum duration of one hour and is always conducted in the presence of an interpreter from our agency.
